Supreme President's Message

DATE: May 10, 2020

TO: Knights of St. John International

Ladies Auxiliary, Knights of St. John International FROM: Gen. Frank Waseleski, Sr., Supreme President

RE: Status of 2020 Supreme Convention vs. Coronavirus Pandemic

Dear Knights and Ladies,

Greetings once again from the Supreme Executive Board of Directors, Knights of St. John International.

As we had proclaimed to our members in our last letter dated April 1, 2020, we have been monitoring the situation and conditions, virtually daily, on how this Coronavirus has affected the health, safety, and well being of our members and their families, worldwide.

We must report, as all probably are aware of, the situation has not changed in our favor. Even though Country's are starting to partially reopen, the number of new cases, hospitalizations, and deaths continue to mount. We are not in the position we need to be to conduct a Supreme Convention and ensure the safety and health of our members. Even if you could travel to the convention safely, which is highly unlikely now and for some time in the future, our Headquarters Hotel is not open for convention business presently, and nobody could commit to us when it would be. We understand the dedication of our members to our organizations, and fully understand and respect that our members are intelligent and wise in making tough decisions.

But we also understand that it would be wrong for us to place our members into a position to choose between their dedication and the rightful position of protecting the health and welfare of themselves and their families. For the reasons stated above, and with much concern and mercy to our organizations, the Supreme Executive Board of Directors, Knights of St. John International, officially orders the 2020 Supreme Convention "CANCELLED" effective May 9, 2020.

Now we must all work together to ensure that our organizations continue to function and progress respectively to our future. I will not speak to the direction or path forward that the Ladies Auxiliary should undertake, for such decisions and communications should come from your Supreme Ladies Board of Trustees. However, for us Knights, I must say that we are blessed because our forefathers composed the laws we need to move forward within our Supreme Constitution. To have a clear understanding of our laws, we want to take this time to clarify three important areas of our Constitution that will continue us on the path forward and maintain respect and order within the Knights of St. John International. 1. The Supreme Conventions are to be held every two years in the even number years. Therefore, our next Supreme Convention will be scheduled for the year 2022.

2. The Supreme Officers shall be elected in convention by the officers and delegates present. Henceforth, the present elected Supreme Officers shall remain in office until their successors are elected, installed, and qualified.

3. All issues that must obtain a vote at Convention in session shall be, but not limited to, Committee

Reports and Recommendations, Constitutional Changes, etc., shall be placed on the agenda for the next scheduled Supreme Convention in 2022.

We understand that there are individual issues in certain areas of our organization. Your Supreme Executive Board of Directors will continue to monitor these situations and render any lawful, peaceful, and coordinated decisions needed. In these trying times, now more than ever, we need to work closely together to maintain order, protect and serve our members, and continue to move toward our future.

We hope and pray that our members and their families protect and maintain their health and safety.

Please, in the name of Our Lord, follow the guidelines laid down by the scientists and doctors, stay at home, practice social distancing, don't gather in groups, and wear a mask. We are a charitable organization and were organized to assist our members and their families in times of need. Now, more than ever, is that time of need and your Supreme Executive Board of Directors have established an International Food Bank Fund. This fund will assist all members in all the represented Countries of our organization. We are presently working with the banks, laying down the guidelines to proceed forward, and trying to expedite this fund to get the assistance to our members as soon as possible. We will continue to push forward, not only on the Food Bank Fund, but also the return of all funds collected thus far for the 2020 Supreme Convention, and keep the officers and members informed.

In closing, we must all pray for the people throughout the world as we fight this Coronavirus. We must pray that a vaccine will be found to fight this disease and stop the sickness and deaths. We must pray for the strength to make the right decisions to curtail the spread, and pray for the love of Our Lord who will protect us through these times. Pray for the sick and deceased and may the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace. May God help us all.

Respectfully,

Gen. Frank Waseleski, Sr.

Supreme Secretary's Message

A new spring has dawned on the Supreme Secretariat. Effective August 1, 2020 I will be relinquishing my office as your Supreme Secretary. I am pleased to announce the man that I urge be appointed to that office, Brig. Gen. Chijioke (CJ) Okafor.

CJ is from Philadelphia, and we have been working together for the past year, preparing him as my replacement. Here is a bright, young Sir Knight who is anxious to step into these shoes. I ask that all of you give him the same respect and cooperation that you have given me all these years.

I am grateful for having been given the opportunity to serve you for the past 14 years. I was blessed with the honor and the privilege of visiting our brothers in London, Hamburg, twice to West Africa and throughout the United States.

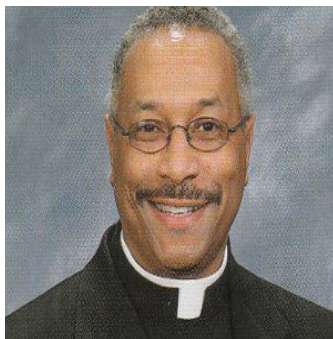

The friendships I've made are all dear to my heart and, as I will never forget any of you, please remember me in your prayers.

Deus lo Vult

Supreme Spiritual Director's Message

May the grace and peace of Our Lord Jesus Christ be with you!

It was not easy writing a reflection to you. With all that has occurred in the United States, Italy, the United Kingdom, and other countries, our minds and hearts have been filled and impacted with so many issues. Long standing issues our society, and even our universal Church, had to deal with, in particular: wars, human and children trafficking, the decline in Church membership abortion, and other issues. Now we have to deal with a new set of issues: Covid-19, systemic racism, crimes against humans, immigration policies, unemployment, the lack of housing for the poor, and other issues. These concerns can be so burdensome that one wonders what our future will be like.

I am reminded of the scripture passage from the Gospel of Matthew, chapter 11: “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.” As people of faith, we must take the words of Christ to heart and learn to turn to him readily when we are in need, and when our world is in need.

Our lives have changed in so many ways. What we must continue to do is stand strong in faith, trust, and hope in Our Savior Jesus Christ. He promised to see us through all trials and tribulations. He will help us see a more promising future.

Finally, like many of you, I was disappointed that we had to cancel our Convention. It is always a time to renew our fraternal support and to meet new friends. However, the health and welfare of our membership and organization is very important. I wish to thank the organizers in Louisville and our Grand Knight, along with the Executive Committee in making the right decision.

Until we gather again, stay strong in prayer, faith and hope. Stay safe. Continue to be true witnesses for the Lord and the Knights of St. John International. Know that all of you remain in my prayers.

Peace and blessings,

Rev. Msgr. Federico Britto

Supreme Spiritual Director

Twenty Rules for a Knight

1. Solitude

Create a time alone with yourself. When seeking the wisdom and clarity of your own mind, silence is a helpful tool. The voice of our spirit is gentle and cannot be heard when it has to compete with others. Just as it is impossible to see your reflection in troubled water, so too is it with the soul. In silence, we can sense eternity sleeping inside us.

2. Humility

Never announce that you are a knight, simply behave as one. You are better than no one, and no one is better than you.

3. Gratitude

The only intelligent response to the ongoing gift of life is gratitude. For all that has been, a knight says, "Thank you." For all that is to come, a knight says, "Yes".

4. Pride

Never pretend you are not a knight or attempt to diminish yourself because you deem it will make others more comfortable. We show others the most respect by offering the best of ourselves.

5. Cooperation

Each one of us is walking our own road. We are born at specific times, in specific places, and our challenges are unique. As knights, understanding and respecting our distinctiveness is vital to our ability to harness our collective strength. The use of force may be necessary to protect in an emergency, but only justice, fairness, and cooperation can truly succeed in leading men. We must live and work together as brothers or perish together as fools.

6. Friendship

The quality of your life will, to a large extent, be decided by with whom you elect to spend your time.

7. Forgiveness

Those who cannot easily forgive will not collect many friends. Look for the best in others.

8. Honesty

A dishonest tongue and a dishonest mind waste time, and therefore waste our lives. We are here to grow and the truth is the water, the light, and the soil from which we rise. The armor of falsehood is subtly wrought out of the darkness and hides us not only from others but from our own soul.

9. Courage

Anything that gives light must endure burning.

10. Grace

Grace is the ability to accept change. Be open and supple: the brittle break.

11. Patience

There is no such thing as an once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. A hurried mind is an addled mind; it cannot see clearly or hear precisely; it sees what it wants to see, or hears what it is afraid to hear, and misses much. A knight makes time his ally. There is a moment for action, and with a clear mind that moment is obvious.

12. Justice

There is only one thing for which a knight has no patience: injustice. Every true knight fights for human dignity at all times.

13. Generosity

You were born owning nothing and with nothing you will pass out of this life. Be frugal and you can be generous.

14. Discipline

In the field of battle, as in all things, you will perform as you practice. With practice, you build the road to accomplish your goals. Excellence lives in attention to detail. Give your all, all the time. Don't save anything for the walk home. The better a knight prepares, the less willing he will be to surrender.

15. Dedication

Ordinary effort, ordinary result. Take steps each day to better follow the rule. Luck is the residue of design. Be steadfast. The anvil outlasts the hammer.

16. Speech

Do not speak ill of others. A knight does not spread news that he does not know to be certain, or condemn things that he does not understand.

17. Faith

Sometimes to understand more, you need to know less.

18. Equality

Every knight holds human equality as an unwavering truth. A knight is never present when men or women are being degraded or compromised in any way, because if a knight were present, those committing the hurtful acts or words would be made to stop.

19. Love

Love is the end goal. It is the music of our lives. There is no obstacle that enough love cannot move.

20. Death

Life is a long series of farewells; only the circumstances should surprise us. A knight concerns himself with gratitude for the life he has been given. He does not fear death, for the work one knight begins, others may finish.

“Twenty Rules for a Knight” is from Sir Thomas Lemuel Hawke of Cornwall. He was among 323 killed at the Battle of Slaughter Ridge in 1483. Foreseeing this outcome, Sir Thomas wrote a letter to his children in Cornish outlining the “Rules for a Knight” -- the life lessons Sir Thomas wished to pass along to his children.

A severely damaged letter was adapted and reconstructed by the actor Ethan Hawke, after the family discovered it in the early 1970's in the basement of the family farm near Waynesville, Ohio, after the actor's great-grandmother passed away.

Researched and submitted by Sir Sebastian Ike,
Sacred Heart Comm. #680, Newark, New Jersey

2020 Convention Refund Procedure

The Indiana Grand 2020 Convention Committee would like to thank all who supported our efforts by preregistering with a new online process and booking hotel rooms at the Galt House. While we are disappointed about the cancellation, the health, well-being, and safety of our members is the highest priority. All monies paid for registration, advertisements, and hotel rooms will be refunded in full.

Please read this refund procedure carefully:

- The Galt House hotel will cancel all convention reservations and refund any monies paid. No further action is required for the Galt House.
- Registrations paid with a credit card will be refunded directly back to the credit card used at registration for the full amount of the original charge. Most credit cards have already been issued a refund, and it should have appeared on your May statement.
- Registrations paid by check or money order will be refunded by check. These checks will be mailed by the end of June for the full amount of the check you sent.
- If you do not receive your refund by the end of June, please contact Brigadier General Matthew Trossman at quartermaster@etczone.com.

Wa Grand Commandery

The Wa Grand Commandery Knights & Ladies of St. John International have donated Twelve Thousand Ghana Cedis (GH¢12,000.00) to the Bishop of Wa Catholic Diocese, Most Rev. Richard Kuuia Baawobr, MAfr. at a short ceremony in Wa.

The donation was a contribution from Knights and Ladies of the Wa Grand Commandery, both at Home and in the Diaspora, to support the Bishop to cater for the needs of Parishes in the Diocese in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Making the presentation on behalf of Members, the Supreme Subordinate President of Ghana, Major General Peter C.N. Sangber-Dery, who is also a son of Wa Diocese, indicated that Members of the Order from the Wa Diocese appreciate the challenges the COVID-19 pandemic poses to many people including the Church. As a result, there was a clarion call among Knights and Ladies of the Order from the Diocese to contribute their quota to support the Diocese to address some of the challenges. He said that it also formed part of the Organization's social responsibility to the Church, which it stands to protect and defend at all times.

In his response, the Bishop of the Wa Diocese, Most Rev. Baawobr, expressed deep appreciation to Members of the Knights and Ladies St. John International for their kind gesture. He said the donation will assist him to provide support to Priests and other workers in the Parishes to enable them continue with their ministry in this era of the pandemic. Bishop Baawobr prayed for God's continuous blessings over Members of the Noble Order from the Diocese, their families, work and businesses.

The donation was witnessed and jointly presented by some Senior Knights and Ladies of the Ancient Order from the Wa Diocese, including the immediate Past President of the Supreme Subordinate Commandery of Ghana, Major General James B. Dasah; Past Supreme Subordinate Auxiliary Respected President of Ghana, Noble Sister Helen Bagonluri; Wa Grand Auxiliary Respected President, Noble Sister Louisa Dayang; Immediate Past Wa Grand President, Brig. Gen. Sylvester Dery; Wa Grand Commandery 1st Vice President, Col. Gaspard Saanwie among others.

Pictures of past Memorial Day celebrations

It certainly has been a trying time for the Knights of St. John in recent months. As parts of the world have largely ground to a halt due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, our Church and noble order have not been immune.

Spring is normally a time of rebirth, the smell of fresh cut grass, beautiful gardens starting to spread, and the celebration of the Passion and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ! For the first time in recent memories, we were unable to gather as Commanderies to help our parishes usher in the Triduum and the Easter Season. Already special liturgical celebrations that include the Mass of the Lord's Supper and the Easter Vigil/Easter Sunday Masses – seemed considerably different, not just because we were forced to watch them either on television or social media, but because we had to do it without the companionship of our brothers.

In Buffalo, we are proud to say that we have Parade Rest, a monument to all Knights of St. John, an imposing monument in one of the oldest cemeteries in Western New York (WNY), with a full-size Sir Knight standing guard over the names of our dearly departed brothers. Each year around Memorial Day, we gather together as brothers for an outdoor Mass at the monument, where we celebrate the Resurrection, and the lives of those brothers we have lost in the past year.

Even as we begin to venture back into normal operations, caution still needs to prevail, and because of this, we were unable to gather for this blessed and special event this year. A fitting tribute to the Fallen Brothers was made by Regimental Leadership. While this is commendable, nothing can replace seeing the entire brothers of the Regiment (and the Grand) present.

Many Commanderies are continuing support for their home Parishes through prayer and financial donations. Brothers, everything you do for your Parish is appreciated. Now is the time that we can truly step-up and allow our Knighthood to shine, and be exemplary models of the virtues of our faith that we base our holy and noble order on, Faith, Hope, and Charity.

This time also gives us the opportunity to reconnect with our families, and to re-center our lives on what is most important, the presence of Christ in our lives. Continue to pray for our brothers and their families that they are well during this time, and be sure to be in contact with all your members, even if just to say hello and check on them to see how they are doing.

Then and Now June, 1977 St. Rocco's Commandery 330

Uniformed members of the Knights of St. John served as escort for the priests in the annual procession through the streets of the parish on Holy Friday. Non-uniformed members assisted with the carts carrying the various statues. The traditional barefooted men carrying the crosses were also present in the two and a half hour procession.

The commandery welcomed a new member, M. Rivera and were looking forward to additional members at future meetings.

The annual 125 club dinner will be held on Saturday, June 25 at St. Rocco's hall. Plans include a delicious dinner followed by dancing. A good portion of the proceeds of this affair are donated to St. Rocco's Church.

The annual stag picnic, at which the men prove their capabilities of preparing good meals, will be held on Sunday, July 24, at Arko's Acres. The members are hoping for beautiful weather, so that the breakfast of eggs and sausage can be prepared to fortify themselves for an active day of baseball, horseshoes, cards and above all the traditional bocchia game, which will be enjoyed by all.

Friday August 26 the commandery will sponsor a Night at the Ballpark. There will be a behind the fence dinner for the members, their families and friends. It will be a truly baseball night with all the weiners and hamburgers that you can eat available. Members of the teams will be there to visit and to offer their autographs. We will then retire to a choice section of seats to enjoy a game between the Cleveland Indians and Seattle.

St. Michael's Commandery 140 suffered a great loss Tuesday April 19, 1977, Sir Knight Elmer Seifert passed on to his eternal reward. Elmer joined the Commandery in 1934. He had always been active in the commandery. He was a member of all the drill teams at the supreme conventions. Commandery 140 drill teams won many championships at the convention during the 30's and 40's, until there was a lull in drill during the war. Elmer spent more than 40 months in England as a member of the US Army Air Force during World War II. He was also an avid bowler and participated in many tournaments. He is survived by his mother, widow of Capt. Frank Seifert, who spent many years as a dedicated member of the Knights of St. John. Frank was treasurer to the Ohio Grand Commandery at the time of his death. Mrs. Seifert has many memories of the activities of the Knights of St. John because of the continual participation by her husband. There is no doubt of the fact that the Knights of St. John are a daily part in the lives of the Seifert family. Elmer is survived by his wife, a member of the auxiliary. Their sons Tim and Tom, both of whom served in the Air Force together, are now active members of St Michael's Commandery 140. Son Jay is also a member of the commandery. Larry is the fourth son. Two daughters-in-law have also joined the auxiliary. He is also survived by two brothers who are officers of the Commandery.

Major William Hudlett joined St. Michael's Commandery 140 more than fifty years ago. He served many offices in the commandery as well as in the regiment and the Ohio Grand Commandery. He always made a great effort to attend the various meetings and to participate in all activities of the Knights of St. John. He will always be remembered for his cheerful attitude. He enjoyed performing magic tricks. Although Bill had reached the glorious 80's, he was in attendance at many meetings and at the installation of officers for Commandery 140 this year. He was always ready with words of advice and encouragement, which proved to every one present his loyalty to the order. He had served as a member of the Ohio Legislature for many years. He was also a photographer in Cleveland for many years. His greatest joy during the past year was a return visit to his native Germany. He will long be remembered as a loyal, faithful member of the Knights of St. John.

Now----2020-----

When we reopen, we are planning to do so with safe social distancing.

St. John History-----From the souvenir of the Eighteenth Annual International Convention commencing Wednesday, June 24, 1896 in Dayton, Ohio.

On the feast of the Patron Saint, June 24, 1880, the second convention of the National Roman Catholic Union of the Knights of St. John of the United States met in the "Queen City of the West," Cincinnati, Ohio. There were present delegates from twenty-six Commanderies. Nine of the Commanderies hailed from Baltimore, seven from Cincinnati, three from Cleveland, two from Louisville, and one each from Chillicothe, St. Louis, Buffalo, Rochester, and Washington. The order numbered already thirty-three Commanderies, and 1,949 members, the oldest Commandery being the Knights of St. Peter of Baltimore.

District 4

February-April 2020

The Supreme President, General Frank Wasesleski, presents the charter to Worthy President of Transfiguration Commandery 960, Brother Al Gbi Toe Sr.

Officers and members of the District have continued to make great sacrifices in the service of humanity and mankind, which are the principal attributes of the Noble Order. This was a beautiful season as we transitioned from winter to spring even though we have continued to experience cold weather. Brother Knights and Sisters with their families participated in several activities during the period under review. Our condolences go to Commanderies 680 Newark and 626 New York who lost two of their distinguished members – Brother Ignatius Njoku and 1st Lt. Fidelis Omigie (First Vice President of Commandery 626 NY). Knights of Commandery 680 and Ladies Auxiliary 592 have continued to pray weekly for the repose of the souls of these brothers and offer condolences to the bereaved families.

May the Almighty Father in His infinite wisdom and mercies grant eternal rest to the departed souls and also grant the fortitude to the families to bear the loss.

Delegates' Meetings:

The First Quarterly Delegates' meeting of District Four of the New York Grand Commandery, which was supposed to be hosted by Commandery 676, Trenton, New Jersey, was postponed indefinitely due to the COVID-19 Pandemic developments.

Regular and BOT meetings of Commanderies under District 4 have continued to be held via teleconferences.

Commandery 680:

Brothers of Commandery 680 participated in the Archdiocese of Newark Men's Conference on Saturday, February 29, 2020, at the Seton Hall University, South Orange, New Jersey. This is a day of reflection for men. The conference featured workshops with inspiring and challenging discussions. Over 5,000 men participated in the Conference. They were drawn from the Catholic communities and parishes under the Archdiocese of Newark. The conference concluded with confessions and Eucharistic Celebration with the Archbishop of Newark Archdiocese, His Eminence, Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin was the chief celebrant. Knights of St. John International and St. Columbus provided guard of honor during the occasion. The theme of this year's celebration is "I am my brothers' keeper."

Journal Address

Local commanderies, grand commanderies, districts, and regiments, send your articles to be published in the Knight of St. John Journal to:

KnightsJournal@yahoo.com

Articles must be submitted before the deadline:

September Issue: August 1

December Issue: November 1st

March Issue: February 1

June Issue: May 1

Please send photographs as a separate file, not inserted into the report, and include a phone number for the person submitting in case we have a question or need additional information. Articles may be a Microsoft Word document, or pasted into an email. Include names and captions for all photos in the email or in the article. Please do not type in ALL CAPS for headings, etc.

It's a Digital World

All Knights will receive a digital copy of the journal that will be sent to your email address. Printed copies will no longer be available.

To register, please type in bit.ly/KnightsSignUp in your browser field. You will be asked for your email address, your name, and commandery number.

For those who do not choose to send us your e-mail address, you can always print a copy from our website, ksji.org

This significant change, approved at the Supreme Executive Board meeting in July 2019, will allow us to open up more avenues to making our "Knight of St. John" a colorful quarterly. It will also give us the ability to send timely updates, when necessary.
