President's Address

Greetings once again my brothers. In this writing I am pleased to announce that your Supreme Commandery has signed a contract with the Hotel Buffalo for our 2024 Supreme Convention Headquarters. Our convention will start on July 16, 2024, with check-in and an evening of hospitality, ending with Mass on July 20, 2024.

As in my past addresses, I will continue to explain the changes to this convention compared to other conventions. Please keep in mind that changes had to be made to expedite the excessive workload placed in front of us due to the cancellation of the past two conventions due to the Covid virus. As a heads-up to the delegates and appropriate officers, if we don't finish our business within our general sessions on Thursday, July 18th and Friday, July 19th, 2024, I will reconvene the convention into session on Saturday morning, July 20th, 2024, prior to Mass.

Some other changes deemed necessary are that only the delegates and appropriate officers will be able to attend the business sessions; no observers. Also, as I stated before, no report will be read in its entirety on the floor of the convention, including mine. Each reporting member shall be permitted his allotted time to summarize his report on the floor and should be prepared to supply a copy of your full report to the Supreme Secretary for the record. I ask for the membership to work with me so we can ensure all our business before the convention is conducted and in an orderly fashion.

As we are moving further into the future, we should all stand proud of our efforts to increase our membership. A strong and educated member is the backbone of our organization. In times when many orders such as ours are in decline and find themselves moving away from their traditional aims, purposes, and even their cloak of honor, our efforts have proven fruitful, and we continue to grow. Our Cadet Organization is maturing and now, more than ever, strong and enthusiastic support by top officials is critical, our youth is our future. Along with this support, we need to continue working within our parishes and communities in innovative ways to attract good Catholic gentlemen into our order.

For those of us who live in the United States, our Thanksgiving holiday will soon be upon us. This is a time where we should be grateful for all that we have and be willing to reach out to those who are less fortunate than ourselves; a practice we should follow each day of our lives. So many ask for so much; I personally only ask for the health and safety of my family and friends. As for the rest in life, I hinder my faith and firmly believe that the Lord is my shepherd, and I shall not want. On behalf of my wife, Carol, myself, and the entire Supreme Board, we wish you a safe, happy, and meaningful holiday.

In closing, I want to extend our prayers to a very dear friend and Brother Knight as he is traveling a path of life that I am only too familiar with. Believing and prayer are the only comfort we have. Accept the time we are given and cherish every moment we have with our family. God bless you, my friend, and may the Lord grant you the strength to carry on.

God bless us all!

Gen. Frank Waseleski, Sr.
Supreme President
Knights of St. John International

Interim Supreme Secretary

Greetings to all members of the Knights of St. John International. I would like to congratulate the various Supreme Subordinate Commanderies for their successful conventions. I was present at the Supreme Subordinate USA convention and was impressed by a well-organized event. It was great spending time with the brothers in person. While the duration was short, we are heading in the right direction and will get to a point of full multi-day conventions soon. The Supreme President made the announcement that the 2024 Supreme Convention will be held in July with Buffalo hosting. This is very exciting as we move towards having a convention post covid. The 2024 Supreme convention will be a bit unique in style and not your classic flow of previous Supreme Conventions. The Supreme Board are working diligently behind the scenes to get all the logistics ready to go and a separate communication will be sent out with all the details and specifics of the convention.

My office continues to receive new commandery requests across the Supreme Subordinates, which is a good sign of the health of the organization. I urge any outstanding PCT payments to be remitted to the Supreme as quickly as possible, so we can balance our finances and ensure everyone is up to date prior to convention registrations and requests.

Finally, as I reflect on a homily from one of our parish priests titled "All is Gift," he mentions how everything that we experience in life is a gift. If we approach life in this manner, we will always see the good in others and strive to be better versions of ourselves and a shining example to others. I will close with a bible verse that resonated with me this week.

Matthew 5:14-16, "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven."

Fraternally,
Maj. Gen. Chijioke Okafor
Interim Supreme Secretary

Supreme Spiritual Director

Dear Brother Knights,

The grace and peace of Our lord Jesus Christ be with you!

Iask you to keep in prayer areas of our world that were affected by natural disasters, civil unrest, and human trafficking. Countries like Morocco, Turkey, Libya, India and parts of Africa, experienced floods, earthquakes, drought and fire. These natural disasters and their cost remain at the top of lawmakers and 'activist' minds. We pray for lives lost, those who lost their property, and the rebuilding of communities. Human trafficking is becoming more of a concern for lawmakers. We may want to contact our legislators to encourage them to find ways to help with these issues.

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, has announced a Synod on Synodality. Over the past year, every archdiocese and diocese throughout the world were asked to evaluate themselves and to develop a strategic plan to assist in the vitality and vision of the future of the Catholic Church. Soon, a Synod will be held in Rome. The future of the Catholic Church is not only in the hands of the Pope, Cardinals, Bishops, and Priests. It is also in the hands of each member of the Catholic Church. We are all called to be Missionary Disciples for the Church. Jesus Christ called his disciples together, anointed, blessed them, and sent them forth to proclaim His message to all peoples. As followers of Christ, we are called to proclaim God's message. We are called to be disciples for Christ proclaiming Him in speech and action. The future of the Catholic Church depends on all believers of Christ. Let us accept the role of Missionary Disciple, leading and guiding people to the Kingdom of God. The Catholic Church in certain areas of the world is in crisis mode. We must do our part to slow down this crisis and help our Church to be vital, viable, and visionary.

I look forward to the day when we will all gather again for our Convention.

You remain in my daily prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Rev. Msgr. Federico A. Britto

In Memoriam

Brig. Gen. Emmanuel N. Toe

Services were held for the late Brig. Gen. Emmanuel Toe, who served as 2nd vice president of the USA Supreme Subordinate Commandery, at St. John the Baptist Church in Columbus, Ohio in July.

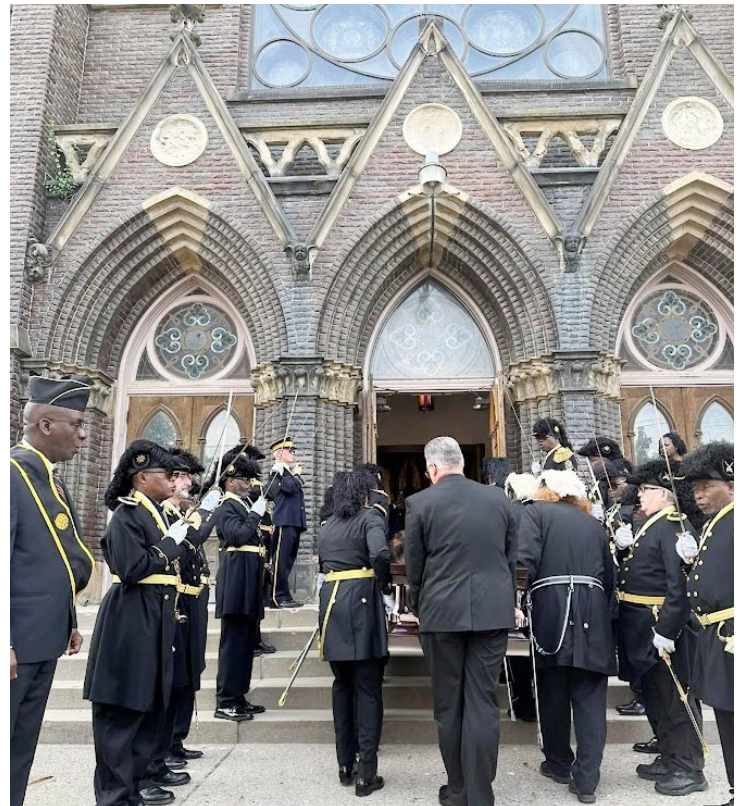

Knights from the Baltimore-Washington, New York, and Michigan grands as well as local Commandery 97 arrived to pay their last respects to their fallen brethren. Officer in attendance were USA Supreme Subordinate President Brian Stehlin, Supreme Trustee Maj. Gen. Martin Bella, Supreme Subordinate Trustee Col. Paul Jasper, Baltimore-Washington Grand president Brig. Gen. P. Thomas Dahn, former Supreme Subordinate secretary Brig. Gen. Francis B. Kollie and the local Commandery President Bryant Oberting.

The Brother showed the true testimony of knighthood with fellow brother serving as guards and pall bearers as they echoed the opening ode of the Knights of St. John, Shoulder to Shoulder.

Emmanuel loved the almighty of St. John and his wish of being buried as a Knight, surrounded by his fellow brother knights, was granted. He is now resting in peace on the bosom of Abraham.

In Memoriam

A Servant of God

Memorial Mass for Fr. Narcisse Martin, S.S. was held on Sunday August 6, 2023 at Our Lady Help of Christians Catholic Church, located in Waldorf, Maryland.

This was a unique Memorial Mass, on the 100th Anniversary (Centennial Aug 6, 1923 to Aug 6, 2023), which paid a special tribute to Fr.

Martin's legacy and was a reminder to the Charles County Community of the many Baptisms, First Communions and weddings of Catholic citizens including formerly enslaved, local tobacco farmers, and Native Americans. It was noted that he also served the parents and relatives of the great Father Robert Pittman who was also a Knight in Commandery #309.

Bishop Roy Campbell, a native son of Charles County, and first-ever African American Bishop, served as Presider and Homilist and was escorted by the Knights of Saint John Commanderies #309 and #373. The Ladies Auxiliaries #301, #303 and #357 also attended the Memorial Mass.

Monrovia Grand Commandery, Liberia

Brothers of Queen of Peace Commandery # 993 posted for photo after inauguration of new Commandery on July 9, 2023.

In July 2023, the Monrovia Grand Commandery (MGC) conducted two exercises to increase its numerical strength and to broaden the knowledge of brothers in the workings of the Order.

The Inauguration of a new Commandery in Cestos City, Rivercess County

After several attempts over the past few years, the MGC successfully inaugurated the Queen of Peace Commandery #993 on July 9, 2023. The ceremony was presided over by Col. Kofi A. Ireland, 1st Vice Grand President who deputized for the Grand President Brig. General Patrick G. Brown. In addition to congratulating the 18 chartered members of the new commandery, Col. Ireland thanked the brothers for their patience as they waited over the years for approval from the Supreme Commandery grant them the permission to organize the Commandery. He further said the inauguration of a commandery in their parish, Queen of Peace Parish, gives the brothers added responsibilities to ensure they propagate the faith and work harder to uplift the parish spiritually and financially. He also cautioned them now to begin to think of how to pool their resources and engage in a business venture to reduce the burdens of always requesting contributions from the brothers. Queen of Peace #993 is located in Cestos City, the capital of River Cess County, in south central Liberia. Its inauguration brings to 14 the number of local commandries in the MGC and it is the first Commandery ever in Liberia to have a visually impaired brother as a chartered member.

Sustaining the Order through Knowledge Increase

In an effort to broaden the knowledge of brothers about the Order and ensure that they become exposed to the workings of the Commandery it has conducted several lectures over the last six months, and held a ceremony to exemplify 25 brothers into the 2nd and 3rd Degrees of the Noble Order in July at the St. Pius X Parish in Harbel, Margibi County. The celebrant of the Mass was Monsignor Rev. Dr. Gabriel B. Jubwe, the Diocesan Administrator of the Archdiocese of Monrovia. He challenged the candidates to remain true to the principles of the degrees and reminded them that charity is not only the greatest of all virtues, but the foundation of our faith. He urged the candidates to recommit themselves to the service of the Holy Mother Church by being active in the activities of their respective parishes.

In his remarks after the exemplification ceremony, Col. Kofi A. Ireland, who served as the Acting Grand Master, challenged the brothers to take the knowledge acquired during the training seriously and share it with members of their respective commanderies in order to ensure that brothers remain knowledgeable and remain committed to the practices and objectives of the Noble Order. He concluded by thanking the members of the Ad Hoc Exemplification committee for the sacrifices they made in preparing the candidates and congratulated the candidates who performed exceptionally during the preparatory exercises.

Ghana's Queen of Peace Commandery #744 and Ladies Auxiliary #539, Nadowli

As part of our commitment to serving God and Country, The Queen of Peace Commandery #744 and Ladies Auxiliary #539, Nadowli recently undertook some charity works to support some selected poor and needy in the community.

Through the efforts and generous contributions of Brothers and Sisters, we were able to gather some items for the exercise.

The items we distributed included: Raw food (Maize), used clothes, and bars of soap.

In total, our charity works benefited a significant number. We reached out to 18 individuals and families, providing them with these essential items to alleviate their immediate needs and improve their quality of life.

Our commitment to serving the community remains unwavering, and we will continue to undertake such charity works to uplift and support those in need.

Owerri Grand Commandery

Owerri Grand Knights and Ladies hold two-day workshop for Cadets and Juniors

It was a bumper packed workshop. Grand Spiritual Director Rev. Fr. Kizito Onyeka, in the opening Mass, extolled the qualities of St. John the Baptist whose feast of beheading we celebrated on the 29th of August.

The Cadets and Juniors Organizer and Directress, Bro. Austin Achu and Sister Maria Okeh, welcomed the participants.

The Grand President Brig.Gen. Moses Ajeka and Grand Secretary Col. Donatus Onyenanu were present at the opening Mass.

On the 30th of August the participants woke, cleaned the compound and engaged in an early breakfast and Mass to prepare for the day's work.

They were engaged in lectures on the Life and Times of St John the Baptist, Knights of St John International, as well as skills acquisition on making personal effects such as perfume, liquid washing soaps etc.

The climax came with a dance, jubilation, lunch, then departure.

50 YEAR WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Noble Brother Christopher Muoh took Sister Cecilia Muoh back to the altar as they celebrated 50 years of marriage at their country home Enugu ukwu Njikoka LGA Anambra state, Nigeria.

The officiating bishop, Most Rev. Dr Paulinus Ezeokafor of Awka Catholic Diocese, prayed God's abundant blessings and more years of marriage. Noble Brother Chris Muoh, initiated into the Noble Order in 2001, rose through the ranks, becoming a Worthy President of Commandery#534 in 2015. District 13 performed marvelously well on parade doing well what they know best.

In the Spirit of Charity

Remember our sick brothers and sisters, give them a call, pay them visits, above all remember them in our prayers.
